ANDERSON, KOKOMO & LOGANSON. The Finance Committee reported that the funds in the treasury were rapidly increasing, quite a number having joined the Union since he last meeting, and paid their dues.

It was stated that a report was in circulation to the effect that Mr. Dobell, in signing the bill, had said nothing about allowing a 'Shop Committee." Mr. McCurdy maintained that the "Shop Committee" was a matter of great importance to the journeymen. It was the only means they had of securing a uniform bill of prices. It was not the object of this committee-as had been asserted by several employers-to dictate to bosses as to what they should pay. The bill of prices regulates that matter. Their duty was simply to see that the bosses did pay what they agreed to. He moved that the committee be instructed to call on Mr. Dobell and

Aaron Shaw is still willing to sign the bill, but is down on the "Shop Committee." It was agreed to allow Mr. Shaw further time.

Mr. F. H. Knoblough had signed the bill, and wished to be considered "all right." As Mr. K. did not state in writing whether he would submit to a "Shop Committee" or not, the report was sent back.

Mr. Wagoner regretted this action very much. He knew that Mr. Knoblough wanted to do every thing that was fair. Had had a "Shop Committee" before he signed the bill-Mr. K. was strongly in favor of having one. Mr. Wagoner felt certain that it was an oversight in Mr. Knoblough.

ambiguous. It was calculated to reflect upon the reports as published in the Press. He therefore offered the following:

An OUTHAGE .- On Friday last a poor Irish family living on Vine street, below Columbia, was, so we are informed, turned out of house and home-their furniture was piled upon the sidewalk in front of the house, and remained there up to a late hour Saturday night-an old weman and a little girl keeping watch over what was, no doubt, every thing they possessed in the world. This misery was entailed and taken to the Ninth-street Station-house upon them by some cruel and heartless landyesterday afternoon, upon a charge of assault lord, because they were unable to pay the rent and battery with intent to kill. Yesterday he was taken back on the Telegraph to serve out a six years term for the same offense. He is quite industrious, and decidedly enterprising.

> A man named Christian March, who resides on Buckeye street, yesterday fell from the top of an omnibus, on Court street, near Western row, and injured himself quite severely. LAW REPORT. COMMON PLEAS.

CIVIL SIDE.—Adams vs. Powell. Action on a promissory note against an indorser. The defense was that there had been no demand and notice. The indorser, over his signature, indorsed on the note "protest waived." and the question was whether this excused the want of demand and notice.

Judge Dickson, in disposing of the case, said that the Supreme Court (Ohio State Reports, Vol. 2, pp. 333), say that, in commercial language, the term "protest" includes not only the formal decisration drawn up and signed by the notary, but also, "all the stops ascessary to charge an indorser." The waiver, then, of protest, is a waiver of "all the necessary steps to charge the indorser." These steps are due demand of the maker, and due notice of dishonor to the indorser. The waiver of protest, then, excludes the plaintiff for not making demand and giving notice. Judgment for plaintiff.

Fox for plaintiff Murioch for defense.

Wyman vs. Wyman. Decree of divorce asked against the wife, on the ground of willful absence. Refused, and prittion dismissed.

M. E. Monkhoff vs. Christian F. Monkhoff. Divorce grathed on the ground of neglect of duty.

Caiminal Side.—Judge Carter having closed all the business of the sossion, sentenced the prisoners, etc. (the amount of business, too, being unusually heavy, adjourned over this branch of the Court until April.

MERTING OF THE YOUNG MEN'S NATIONAL REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION .- Quite a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Young Men's National Republican Association was held on Saturday evening, at their rooms, No. 5 Metropolitan Hall. Dr. N. C. Daniels occupied the chair, and H. G. Armstrong acted as Secretary. The following preamble and resolutions, expressive of the sense of the meeting on the Police Bill, were passed unanimously:

WHEREAS, The Legislature of Ohio, by a partisan majority, have passed an act by which they have transferred the control of the police from the Mayor, who was elected for that purpose, to the Police Judge and City Auditor, who were not: AND WHEREAS, This has been done just at the close of the term of office of said Judge and Auditor, and at a time when they represent the sentiments and views of a minority of the peo-AND WHEREAS, Said act is so arranged that the Police Commissioners are to be elected one week before, and are to appoint the police two days after the ensuing Spring election, thus rendering it certain that the conduct of partisans at the election will determine the choic of the police:

AND WHEREAS, The same Democratic ma jority that passed the law rejected an amend-ment providing for the election of Police Commissioners by the people, rejected another amendment providing for the appointment of Police Judge, Auditor and Mayor to be chosen at the ensuing Spring election, and rejected a third amendment forbidding the police selected under said law from electioneering while on for by the people, but was protested against by the City Council, and remonstrances were pre-sented from a very large number of our best

Resolved, That we denounce said law as an invasion of our rights of self-government, and will, in every honorable and legal way, resist

Resolved, That this law is worthy of the professed friends of "Popular Sovereignty," of the defenders of the Lecompton Constitution, of the supporters of the fraudulent Canal Contracts, of the indorsers of Breslin, Morgan and Edgerton, of the followers of the Administration which gives contracts so as to fill the shops with Democratic voters, and doubtful shops with Democratic voters, and doubtful districts, just before elections, and is a fit child of such polluted parents.

Resolved, That by giving control over the number and pay of watchmen to the partisan Commissioners, and to be selected under this law, the bogus Democracy have rendered increase of taxation inevitable.

Resolved, That we denounce the Democrat ic party for not having abolished the office of City Marshal, or reduced its pay to reasonable limits, and for having, by the passage of this unconstitutional law, left the office in legal until we can, as we shall, sweep them from legislative power, in Ostober next.

Resolved, That we thank the City Council for their prompt action to test the validity of this infamous law.

Resolved, That we recommend the approaching Opposition Convention to nominate a candidate for City Marshal, and the people to elect the same, to hold the position during the next term, until the Legislature shall, by valid legislation, abolish the office.

Several persons addressed the meeting, denouncing the Bill in every particular, as having nothing to recommend it to the support of the thoughtful well-wishers of the community. The Association then adjourned till next Saturday evening.

ANOTHER FUGITIVE SLAVE ARRESTED. - A few days ago a young man from Cabell County, Virginia, named James Kilgour, arrived in this city, and procured a warrant for the arrest of a fugitive slave named Lewis Early, who he had heard was residing in Highland County in this State. After a long-continued search, Mr. Kilgour, with a friend, Mr. Thompson of Kentucky, and United States Deputy Marshal Manson, came upon a couple of negroes who were chopping wood in Buckskin Township, Ross County, one of whom proved to be the fugitive Early. He was arrested and handcuffed, while the other ran to a farm house and told what had happened.

The occurrence caused considerable excitement, and a warrant was issued for the parties, who were summoned before a magistrate; but it was decided that the Marshal was acting only in the fulfillment of his duties, according to a recent decision of the Supreme Court, and, of course, they were discharged. They then took the cars to Chillicothe for the purpose of meeting the train coming to this city, where they arrived at eleven o'clock on Saturday morning.

The fugitive, in the afternoon, was taken before United States Commissioner Charles C. Brown; but as there are a number of witnesses who are required in the case that live in Cabell County, Va., it was continued-the negro being, in the mean time, remanded to jail. It was claimed by Mr. Jolliffe, counsel for the defendant, that Early was entitled to his freedom, he having been manumitted some time ago by the father of the plaintiff, but that the papers had been burnt in a house which was destroyed by fire at the time he resided in it. This Mr. Kilgour denied, and stated that his father was a lunatic, and that a guardian had been appointed over him. The case will come again before the Commissioner on Friday next.

Ar the East we learn that anxieties for the steamers "Niagara" and "Alps" are becoming intense. Both are past due, having been now 16 days out. To such as have friends aboard we would say, there is no cause of alarm, as at this season of the year it is nothing unusual for steamers to be sixteen or more days out. Any way, it is a fact often forgotten by us, (in reverence we say it,) that our friends are just as near God on the water as off of it.

AT a meeting of the St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Benevolent Society, held in the basement of St. Peter's Cathedral, Sunday evening, March 27th, the following resolutions were WHEREAS, A meeting has been called by some anonymous person or persons, to express indignation at a notice of the procession of St. Patrick's day of this Society, in one of the daily papers of this city; and WHEREAS, This call is wholly unauthorized adopted :

by us,

Resolved, That, as we are competent to manage our own concerns, we feel that we are also capable of taking care of our honor and dignity, and shall resent them when we consider that the insult and its author deserve it. Resolved, That if the "notice" was intended for wit, its stupidity, as well as its bad taste, saves it from either indignation or contempt and if it were intended for malice, we can af ford to despise it. Resolved, That we entirely repudiate the meeting of to-morrow night.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be inserted in the Daily Press, Daily Gazette, Commercial, Enquirer and Times.

WM. GEOGHEGAN, Sec'y.

WE notice demands by the people are being made upon Mr. William Stoms, of the firm of John F. Dair & Co., to become Councilman from the First Ward. In the Press of the 19th inst., we announced this paper to be for the people-the whole people-East, West, North and South-that we knew no Democrat, no Republican, no American, no party, no ect-except we knew all as one brotherhood.

Now to the application. We do not know, or do we care, what Mr. Stoms' political views are; but we do know that he is an honest and capable man, and we feel confidence in him, that, if elected, he will discharge the duties of Councilman to the satisfaction of the people.

IMPORTANT TO REAL ESTATE PURCHASERS,-It may not be known to persons who buy real estate that any charge for gas which may remain unpaid at the time of the transfer is held as a lien upon the property; therefore, when they inquire at the County Auditor's office in regard to the county tax, it would be well, at the same time, to drop into the office of the City Auditor and see that there are no arrears to be settled there. It may save them some annovance and the city some trouble.

THE Daily Press will be found on file at all the principal hotels in the following cities: New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Washington-East; Louisville, Memphis and New Orleans-South; St. Louis, Milwaukee and other cities-West; and also at all American Express Offices in London and Paris.

SILVER FROM SONORA .- We had exhibited o us on Saturday a specimen of silver from Sonora, weighing a little over thirty-eight ounces, and valued at $49. It was sent by mail from the company who started from this city, and who have established there amalgamation works. The enterprise, we understand, bids fair to become a paying one. A ferocious dog attacked two ladies on Broadway, between Third and Fourth streets, on Saturday evening, tearing their dresses, but before inflicting any bodily harm the beast was driven off by a gentleman who came to their

A MIDDLE-AGED gentleman, we have forgotten his name, fell in a fit, on the corner of Fourteenth and Elm streets. He was conveyed by couple officers to a house near by, and a physician sent for, who, after proper examination, considered him in a very critical condition.

Ms. Dansy, we understand, is about to erect a large building, to be adorned with a pure white marble front, on the lot adjoining Carlisle's Buildings. Considerable rivalry exists as to who shall put up the finest building. May it increase.

CHAS. KRUGER, charged with stabbing Mary J. Brown, in the shoulder, on Thursday night last, at a disreputable house, was before the Police Court, on Saturday, for examination, and held in the sum of $500 to answer at the next term of the Common Pleas Court.

"The Blood is the Life Thereof."

Chemical Analyses of the Blood of Commeptives Show a deficiency of the Bed Globules.

According to Liebig, these globules attract oxygen
from the air, and combustion of the carbonaccous particles of the blood ensues, evolving animal heat or vitality; it follows, therefore, if they were deficient, vitality; would be defective.

"The blood can not be deprived of a certain quantity of its globules, without there resulting from it great prostration of the muscular system, very marked general feeblewess grave perturbations of the nervous system, "and various disorders of the functions of digestion, respiration and circulation." Even before auscultation can detect the existence of Consumption, the blood globules are already diminished, and the blood exhibits the characteristics of that of a person who has been bled several times. "As the tubercles of the lungs advance, the diminution of the globules grows more and more considerable, and, at last, reaches its minimum, when the lungs are filled with cavities." Andral on the Blood. Now, it is admitted, Wood's Practice, that tuberculous deposition is in a ratio with defective vitality; consequently, if the globules, or hemarosin were defecient, tuberculous deposition would be increased.

"Upon such Chemical and Physiological facts is based Mr. Guilford's theory of the causes of Consumption, Chronic Bobility, etc., as set forth in his recent lecture at Smith & Nixon's Hall.

It is, of course, impossible, in the brief limits of a circular, to smbody and arrue this theory. He can merely say that he has presented it to the consideration of the most eminent physicians in the United States, who admit its plausibility, and have hitherto confessed their hability to criticise it. Admitting it sourcectnoss, the obvious inference is, that in Consumption, and all other diseases of Chronic debility or defective vitality, if the globules or hematesia are deficient, (and analyses of the blood in these diseases

In the comments of our exchanges upon these performers, there is nothing like invidious distinction or preference, but all receive alike unqualified praise. And though we wish to make none ourselves, we can hardly forbear to mention the distinguished excellence accorded to Miss Gould. It is no small honor to be denominated the "first American prima donna," nor is such an honor won but by superior merit. "Even under the impediments of her somber disguise, and the drollery of a burlesque, she produced all the effect of the most pathetic comedy. The mingling of the serious and the sentimental with the ridiculous and the comic in such a manner as to bring the tear and excite the smile together, requires no ordinary talent and exhibits no common genius." Fred Buckley, formerly known as "Le Petit Ole Bull," has reflected honor rather than discredit upon his distinguished name-sake. Indeed, it is the candid judgment of many, who
